

The Blueprint for Small Business Success

In this program...

Looking for a streamline approach to preparing your business plan? Join Lead Consultant Tom Weir as he takes you through the blueprint of small business success. This 9-box blueprint follows the ideology of the business model generation canvas. This roadmap will help your business produce, deliver, market, and make money.

You'll hear from: Tom Weir:

Tom has been a Business Consultant for over 17 years. He has helped hundreds of business owners in diverse industries become more productive and profitable. He has worked predominately with business owners who have wanted to shift from being the primary TECHNICIAN working "in their business" to the primary strategist working "on their business".
